	SUBJECT: REFERENCE/RESOURCE INFORMATION	PAGE: 1 of 1
REFERENCES: None		DATE ADOPTED: 7/1/06 DATE REVIEWED:

STANDARD: Written policy, procedure and practice provide that library materials and resource information are available to staff.

DISCUSSION: Each Community Supervision Agency should have a portfolio or directory of local resources, etc., that relate to the local area that is available to staff. Reference material should include the Communities that Care Model, Balanced and Restorative Justice Model, and best practices/promising approaches.

NOTE: The standards and procedures set forth herein are intended to establish operational guidelines for community supervision agencies and their employees/contractors and juveniles under supervision. They are not intended to establish state created liberty interests for community supervision agencies or their employees/contractors, or supervised juveniles, or an independent duty owed by the Juvenile Justice Authority to community supervision agencies, or their employees/contractors, supervised juveniles or third parties. This standard and procedure is not intended to establish or create new constitutional rights or to enlarge or expand upon existing constitutional rights or duties.
